Dry Weather Big Story In County For '64

Dry weather ranked at the top of Randall County news this year.

Dr. M. B. Measamer, weatherman at West Texas State University, said Canyon caught only 13.37 inches of moisture through Dec. 27.

This was almost 7 inches less than normal but not the driest year in recorded weather history here. Dr. Measamer said 1956, when there was only a little more than 10 inches, holds that record.

As a result of dry weather, crops were short except in cases where they were irrigated.

However, fall rains pepped up wheat crop and the county has had an influx of cattle brought into graze wheat pastures.

Paradoxically, a 12 to 15 inch snow early last February made one of the top news stories of the year. Roads were glazed and traffic hazardous for several days.

Canyon schools were closed two days during the storm. Alternate thawing and freezing damaged city and county roads and streets.

Politics held the spotlight from May until the general election in November. Lyndon Johnson was returned to the Presidency by a landslide.

However, here in Randall County voters favored Barry Goldwater 7,843 to 6,016. It was the biggest turnout in the county's history.

Figuring along with the election was J. Evetts Haley's book, "A Texan Looks at Lyndon," a controversial manuscript dealing with the career of Lyndon Johnson.

Estimates on the number of these books distributed range from a half million to as many as 8 million. Publishers of the book have not released an official figure.

Canyon's residential building continued at a rapid pace. Figures will not be available until next week on the actual dollar value of 1964 construction here.

The way was cleared for establishment of Killgore Research Center here with the approval of the Commission on Higher Education for West Texas State University to offer biology as a major for the masters degree.

The research center is to be focused on biology.

Dr. Alfred A. Kraus has been employed as project director and at this time steps are being taken to obtain matching funds for constructing and equipping the center. Initial funds for the center came in the amount of $500,000 from the Killgore Foundation.

Texas State Teachers Colleges board of regents gave West Texas State officials permission to ask the Commission on Higher Education for a pharmacy school and a school of nursing for WT.

No commission action has yet been taken.

Two expensive railroad accidents--one in March and the other in July--left one dead and did damages in the thousands of dollars.

The freight car stack-up in March occurred just west of Farmers Elevator. Some 40 cars were derailed.

Residents of the area were evacuated as butane tankers endangered the city for more than 24 hours.

The derailment in July took the life of a Kentucky man who was hitching a ride on a fast freight. This accident took place near Consumers Fuel & Elevator a few hundred yards west of the scene of the March mishap.

The Canyon Eagles made the year for sports fans by winning the AA state basketball championship. The Happy Cowgirls basketball team placed third in state in their division.

Jerry Richardson received just about every honor a football player can come by except All-America status. The rangy Buffalo back, reared in Canyon and Umbarger, played in the All-American Bowl in June and then again in August at Soldier's Field.

Canyon High School was not without literary honors. The one-act play team, coached by Mrs. Margaret Foster, took first place at state.

The Canyon High School choir was number one in its classification at the Tri-State Music Festival at Enid, Okla. The Eagle marching band also was one of the top-rated bands at the festival.

The choir is under direction of Gene Murray. Band director for CHS at that time was Lee Boyd Montgomery.

One of the most talked about incidents of the year was the appearance here last spring of Dr. Nels F. S. Ferre as Religious Emphasis Week speaker at West Texas State University.

Dr. Ferre, whose writings have sparked controversy in theological circles across the country, drew attention to himself largely because of his writings on the Virgin Birth of Christ.

Another controversial figure who visited Canyon last spring was George Lincoln Rockwell, self-styled leader of the American Nazi Party.

Voters of Canyon Independent School District approved a $750,000 bond issue for construction of an elementary school in South Amarillo and addition of 10 rooms to the present high school building here in Canyon.

Not the least among news events of the year was the anniversary celebration during which Canyon reviewed the 75 years of growth and progress which have taken place since its founding in 1889.

The anniversary shindig, complete with free barbecue, rodeos and parade, took place July 30, 31 and Aug. 1.

Vandals Hit High School, Damage Estimated $7,000

Student Armed Robbery Victim

Frank Schaeffer, WT student and former Buffalo basketball player, was robbed of about $150 at gunpoint early Wednesday morning while working as attendant at the Americana Motor Inn, 4541 Canyon Drive.

Two Amarillo brothers who were arrested only minutes after the robbery were arraigned here Wednesday before Justice of the Peace W. A. "Bill" Wilson and bonds set at $10,000 each.

Charged in connection with the holdup were Michael Charles Parker, 24 years old, and his brother, Patrick Dale Parker, 21.

Both men told the arraigning justice they had previously faced felony charges. The men were returned to Amarillo city jail for further questioning, according to Amarillo officers.

Robert Stout, manager of the Americana, said two men wielding a shotgun and a pistol forced Schaeffer to hand over about $100 from the motel cash register and about $50 from his own wallet.

Detective Lt. Charles Hollis gave this description of the robbery.

He said a car drove by the motel several times. Then two men went to the door of the motel brandishing guns and ordered Schaeffer to open up. He did. They robbed him and warned him not to call police for 15 minutes.

Schaeffer called officers as soon as the gunmen had left and gave police a description of his assailants and the car in which they had fled.

Police Capt. Dub Arterburn stopped a car answering the description about 10 minutes later at Third and Arthur in Amarillo. Another police car pulled up and the Parker brothers surrendered quietly.

Officers confiscated about $80, the Lieutenant reported. Hollis said officers found a sawed off shotgun and a .38 caliber pistol in the car. Officers said the robbery was pulled off about 2 o'clock.

The two men have given no statement. Hollis said the two were identified by Schaeffer as the men who had robbed him.

The two men specifically are charged with robbing Schaeffer. Armed robbery in Texas is a capital offense.

Historical Review Now Available

Paperback copies of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Review for 1964 are now available at Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum, curator Boone McClure announces.

The review, sponsored and published by the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society, features a roundup account of the New Mexico campaign of the Civil War by Ernest R. Archambeau, Jr.

Archambeau has made a hobby of studying the battles and campaigns of the Civil War. He is a native of Amarillo, and presently lives in Houston where he is a patent attorney.

He received the B.S. in mechanical engineering at Texas Tech, the M.S. at the University of Illinois and the bachelor of law at the University of Denver.

The cover design for the paperback book, was drawn by Olive Vandruff Bugbee, art curator of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum in Canyon.

The design illustrates a part of the action in the Battle of Glorieta Pass, March 26, 1862.

Other items of interest include a list of Union veterans in the Panhandle in 1890 by Lowell Harrison. An article by Frank A. Paul on early day banking in the Panhandle also appears in the review.

Editors of the 1964 book were Ernest R. Archambeau, Lowell H. Harrison and Joe F. Taylor.

Copies of the review are priced at $5 each. Approximately 500 copies are available to the public, the remainder of the current printing being reserved for members of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society.

McClure said the annual meeting of the society has been scheduled here for Friday, May 14. Program and speaker will be announced.

Dr. James P. Cornette, president of West Texas State University, is president of the society for 1964-65. Membership currently totals about 700, McClure said.

Merchants Honor First Local Baby

Gifts including diapers, baby carriers, roses, and many other items will be awarded to the family having the first child in 1965.

A picture of the first born and the mother will appear in next week's issue of the News.

A list of contributing merchants and their gifts is in this week's issue of the paper and will also appear next week.

Havoc In Library, Lockers Emptied

Damage skyrocketed to an estimated $7,000 damage to Canyon High School in a Tuesday night vandalism.

According to Canyon Police Chief L. D. Caldwell, vandals struck the high school sometime after 8 p.m. Tuesday.

Broken windows, smashed sliding doors, opened lockers and strewn books and papers were found at 6:55 o'clock Wednesday morning by T. J. Clement, school custodian.

Caldwell said investigation is underway to find the vandals.

"If I knew how long they had been in the building, we could tell about how many there were," the chief remarked.

Clyde Alsup, insurance agent, estimated damage at about $7,000.

He said glass replacement would run about $2,000, damage to furniture was estimated at about $1,500 and painting and damage to the walls would run about $800.

Labor, books, and other items would push the damage estimation on up to around $7,000.

Receiving most damage was the library on the east side of the building.

Six sliding doors opening into the patio were apparently smashed with chairs. One chair was lodged halfway through one window.

The plate-glass doors are not insured, according to superintendent Huelyn Laycock.

"All school property is insured except for the sliding doors. Individual property at the school is not insured," said Laycock.

Seventeen windows were broken and metal filing cabinets were bent and overturned. A typewriter, keys jammed and twisted, was lying on the floor.

Two projectors in a library storage room had apparently been tossed and were on the floor.

Drapes lining the six glass doors were ripped and torn.

Windows into the school darkroom were knocked out, but no damage was noted inside the room.

Fire extinguisher dust covered the floor, desks and books in the library. Caldwell said the fire extinguisher had been sprayed in the room and left on a shelf.

Glass in the school trophy case next to the main entrance was shattered, and another case in the building was broken.

Part of the ceiling had been knocked in, according to police, with books and other heavy objects.

One sky light had been ruined, beans were thrown on one wall, desks in two classrooms on the north side were overturned.

Entry is believed to have been gained through a south door opening into the patio. Caldwell surmised that the vandals apparently climbed up a gas pipe on the south side, crawled across the roof and dropped into the patio. Footprints were found in the soft dirt near the entry door.

The vandals apparently were bent only on destruction. Money and expensive pieces of school

TWO HOOPS AND A HOLLAR. And the new Year begins. Tim Henderson, 21-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Henderson, tilts the New Year derby and looks rather skeptical about prospects for 1965. Old Father Time will pass out of the picture of calendar time at 12:01 a.m. Friday, Jan. 1, and little Tim will have his opportunity at the coming year.

Ray Musgrave, Canyon Public School counselor, takes a sorrowful look at debris strewn in the halls of Canyon High School Wednesday morning. Vandals did an estimated $7,000 in the high school, with most damage reported in the library. Books and papers cluttered three halls, glass doors and windows were smashed, and furniture was damaged by the vandals. Canyon police are investigating the incident, the third in three years.

Grand Jury Meeting Set For Monday

A new Randall County grand jury will hold the first meeting of its term next Monday at the court house here.

Members of the grand jury include Keith Jones, Raymond Raillard, Fred Olson, E. E. O'Donald, B. A. Burrus, Leroy Lamb and E. A. Stocker, all of Canyon; and John Ekelund, Joe Guy Smith, W. R. Baker, Durwood Dean, J. W. Helm, Joe B. Wells, Charles Woodburn and Percy Blackburn, all of Amarillo.

Commissioners Delay Annexation Reading

Canyon City Commissioners postponed the second and final reading of a proposed ordinance annexing part of Hunsley Hills development north of Canyon.

Failure to pass the ordinance Monday night kept the some 320 acres in the proposed annexed area off the 1964 city tax rolls.

City Commissioners decided to postpone the reading due to a possible boundary change in the area.

Arch Hunsley, developer of the stylish subdivision, requested that the boundary in the ordinance be moved south. If commissioners vote to change the line in accordance with Hunsley's request, 148 acres will be alleviated from the orginal 320 already in annexation proceedings.

City dads agreed that annexation could wait until after the first of 1965.

Commissioners and attorneys representing Hunsley are discussing possible solutions to various questions involving annexation.

Dewey Bryant, city manager, said both sides are trying to work out a plan whereby the residents in the area, Hunsley and the city will benefit by the involutary annexation.

Hunsley and commissioners are considering the dedication of alleys, streets, water-sewer service extensions and all other utilities to the city.

Other points being discussed are the financing of water and sewer lines under Highway 60, a lift station on Hunsley property, cost of water lines in the sub-division, force main lines and off-site main lines.

"The city is planning to bear costs of the off-site main constructions, which is the substantial cost of the water-sewer development in the area," Bryant said.

Commissioners did not discuss exact figures involved in the proposed cooperation plan.

Further action on the annexation ordinance will be discussed at the regular Jan. 11 meeting, according to Mayor Clarence Eugene Thompson.

In other action Monday, Commissioners authorized Bryant to employe Jess Rhodes to audit the city books for 1964. Dads specified that the audit must be completed 30 days after the end of the fiscal year, and that the city books can not be taken out of the City Hall.

"We need for the audit to be completed within 30 days after March 31 (end of fiscal year) so we can close our books with little delay.

"I hate to see the books taken

Just Can't Get Away

Like the man who came to dinner, a hitchhiker who spent Christmas Eve in Randall County jail is having a hard time getting away.

The man, broke and without a place to spend the night, applied to sheriff's deputies for lodging.

He was given a bed for the night in the trusty cell of the county jail.

He arose Christmas morning and departed garbed in a jacket belonging to one of the trusties.

The hitchhiker and the jacket were apprehended a short time later on Highway 60 headed out of town.

The hitchhiker was charged with misdemeanor theft, the same offense for which the owner of the jacket is serving time.

The man was fined in justice court a total of $215.50 and, lacking funds, he is laying it out in county jail.

At $3 a day, that's 72 days in a hostel where he had only meant to spend a night.

The man who hired Putt Powell as a sports writer for The Amarillo Globe-News visited with us this week.

He is Jerry Malin. Jerry is a 1927 graduate of West Texas State. He was sports editor of the Amarillo paper in 1929 when a teenager walked into the editorial offices and asked for a job.

The boy did not come empty handed. He was armed with statistical records on the Amarillo Golden Sandstorm football team--records dealing not with just a couple of seasons but clear back to 1914.

Malin was impressed. He rather doubted that the lad would be able to devote much time to an editorial task and he stalled just a bit.

"Oh, I'll have plenty of time," he quotes the boy as having said. "I just work at the laundry and one or two other places and go to high school."

That's Jerry's version of how Putt Powell joined the staff of The Amarillo-Globe News.

Jerry also was journalism professor at West Texas State for a period in the 1940's

He was in government service during World War II and returned to government service in the 1950s.

The Malins live at Shreveport, La., now and have been in the area during the Christmas holidays visiting a daughter who lives in Amarillo.

Last week Dr. W. J. Wooten brought us a copy of Art Buchwald's column clipped from The Santa Fe New Mexican of Dec. 9.

Never was a J. Edgar Hoover, says Buchwald of the legendary FBI chief.

Buchwald says J. Edgar Hoover was a name dreamed up by The Reader's Digest in 1925.

"They got the word Hoover from the vacuum cleaner--to give the idea of a cleanup, Edgar was the name of one of the publisher's nephews, and the J stood for jail," wrote Buchwald.

Buchwald says there have been 26 J. Edgar Hoovers since 1925. He concludes that President Johnson will never ask J. Edgar Hoover to resign because in reality there is no J. Edgar Hoover.

We talked to a G-Man friend of ours this week and he had this to say:

"I've met J. Edgar Hoover and shook his hand and so could you, if you want to. Surely Buchwald was being humorous."

We can only say Thank God there really is a J. Edgar Hoover. If the country would only listen to this great elder statesman---one of the greatest Americans living or dead--we might avoid some of the reefs and currents which daily threaten our ship of state.

"Crime and subversion," said Hoover in a recent speech, "are formidable problems in the United States today because, and only because, there is a dangerous flaw in the nation's moral armor. Self-indulgence, the principle of pleasure before duty, is undermining those attributes of personal responsibility and self-discipline which are essential to our national survival."

We have just finished reading Benjamin Franklin's Autobiography and Other Writings. We heartily recommend it to others.

The truth of the ages was assembled by Franklin in Poor Richard's Almanac. Poor Richard recommended virtue, frugality, industry and willingness to learn as the way to wealth.

"Sloth, like rust, consumes faster than labour wears, while the used key is always bright," as Poor Richard says.

"Dost thou love life? Then do not squander time, for that is stuff life is made of," Poor Richard well said.

We visited in Arlington during the holidays. That town is booming and has been for a long time.

Arlington is situated between Dallas and Fort Worth and bumps city limits with Grapevine. Arlington merchants face a problem of losing trade to all three cities. Their problem is many times more acute than that with which Canyon merchants are confronted in losing business to Amarillo.

Arlington's downtown merchants refused to modernize their stores so business is going to shopping centers. The downtown section of Arlington looks just like it did when we visited the city about 10 years ago.

Arlington is the home of Arlington State College and a goodly number of Arlington residents are commuters.

A group of Arlington business people formed what is known as Greater Southwest Corporation. This not only has the appearance of having been a profitable venture for the folks who organized it but it has proved a boon to the city by pulling in industry.

Some of the country's better known firms, including General Motors, have establishments at Arlington.

Arlington is much bigger than Canyon but in many ways our opportunities and problems parallel those of that city.

Relatives we visited in Arlington have a keen community spirit. The head of the household is himself a commuter being, as he is, an aircraft engineer and employed outside the city.

The family trades with Arlington merchants and go to Fort Worth and Dallas only on rare occasions.

Folks down at Muleshoe are trying to raise money to build a statue to a mule. You'd think building such a monument would be rather innocuous.

Don't you believe it!

The committee in charge picked out a very flashy mule.

Since that mule's picture has been run in papers across the country there has been heck to pay.

Some folks say he's a snide--a mule fair to look upon but worthless when hitched to a wagon, a mule for trading but not for working.

Others can't quite put their finger on what is wrong but they say the mule is just plain too horsey.

Try picking a non-controversial subject sometime and see how far you get with it!

MEANDERING WITH MARGO

Sue and Bill Davis and their three children apparently spent a delightful Christmas at Red River this year.

Sue explained a few of the activities which surround folks spending their Yule holiday on the snow slopes.

One of the highlights of the trip was the cutting of a Mother Nature-grown Christmas tree. The children went out, picked the tree and helped in the actual cutting.

Then gleefully they toted the branchy thing down the mountain to their cabin.

Once inside, the tree was decorated with homemade supplies, in addition to the store-bought lights and balls.

But the tree held second place to one spectacular event which the children found fascinating.

One afternoon, nine ski instructors brought Santa Claus in his sleigh down the mountain slope. And of course Santa was loaded with bags of candy and goodies for the kiddoes.

Sue found especially impressive the evening events around a giant Christmas tree on one of the steep slopes.

"They had the tree decorated as a Christmas tree, and in the evening the better skiers skied down the slope, around the tree and back to lodge with lighted torches.

"It was just beautiful. In fact, the entire vacation was one of the best Christmases we have ever spent.

"No noise, no rush. The only thing I missed was Christmas music. We couldn't hear the radio very well, and that is the only thing I would have liked to have heard," Sue recalls.

From all I could hear this week, several Canyon couples have spent Christmas in the mountains of New Mexico. But you have to make reservations a year or so in advance.

So, see you on the slopes next year..or are you one of those people who enjoys the hustle and bustle of Christmas, the busy streets, the noisy laughter and the gay lights of the city?

I might say join the club.. Snow skis and my feet have never been too compatible.

My only resolution for the New Year is not to break a leg at Ruidoso this weekend. I'm staying plumb clear of the ski slopes. Think I'll stick close to the lodge fire and talk with the other cowards.

Course In First Aid Offered To Residents

Canyon residents will have an opportunity to take an American Red Cross First Aid course in the near future.

Joe Rice, City Fire Captain, will instruct the course, to cover everything in the line of first aid, according to Rice.

Dates for the course are not definite as of yet, but tentative plans are being made to begin Jan. 4.

The course will last for two weeks, and will be held from 4-6 p.m. Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday.

Persons interested in taking the instruction should contact Rice at OLive 5-4741, as soon as possible, since the class is limited to 15 or 20 persons.

City and county law enforcement officers will also be taking the course, Rice stated, and for that reason, the number of other persons in the class will be limited.

If a charge is made for the course at all, it will be nominal, Rice added.

Mrs. K. E. Frieze left Neblett Hospital this week after a four-day illness.

She was hospitalized Saturday, and released Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Frieze's husband stated that she is now feeling much better now, and expressed confidence in her recovery.

She is an instructor in the English Department of West Texas State University.

Mr. and Mrs. M. I. McGehee and family visited with friends in El Paso during the Christmas holidays.

EACH NEW DRUG COSTS ABOUT $4,000,000.00

Between discovery of a new drug in a laboratory the time needed to prove safety and benefits is over five years. Reliable statistics show that only one new drug is useful for every 2500 substances studied. Four million dollars, the average cost of developing each drug discovery, is a lot of money. But new drugs are greatly responsible for the fact that since 1937 the death rate has so greatly decreased. Countless millions living today would be dead if the 1937 death rate had continued. A useful new drug is always a blessing.

Canyon Schools Begin Child Counting Monday

Will your child start to school in September, 1965? Or 1966? Or 1967?

Folks at the Canyon Public Schools are looking for all youngsters who are going to start to school in the next six years, and the ones already enrolled in classes in Canyon schools.

It's census time again, and parents are urged to help with the 1965 census.

School children riding buses to and from classes will be given census forms and an explanatory letter by the bus drivers Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 6.

Thursday morning the forms should be returned to the bus driver in charge of your child's bus..and the forms should be signed and corrected, if necessary.

"The forms will be filled out, but parents should check to make sure information is correct and that every blank has been filled out," census supervisor Ray Musgrave noted.

Monday, Jan. 4, residents of Canyon will begin having visitors.

Local census takers will conduct a door-to-door campaign during the month of January to find out who has children, names and ages of all children, and grade of each.

"In our school census we will be interested in children ranging in ages from 6-18 on or before Sept. 1, 1965.

"We are also going to be conducting a pre-school census in order to find out how many children will be starting to school in the next few years," Musgrave explained.

Those persons who are not contacted by the last week of January should call Musgrave at OL 5-4732.

For the past 17 years Lee Foster, school tax assessor-collector, has handled the census. Census records and forms will be kept at Canyon High School this year, according to Musgrave.

Doris Smith, who is a freshman student at University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, was a holiday guest in the home of her mother, Mrs. Lillian Smith, of Canyon.

Linda Burgess, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Burgess, visited over the holidays in the home of her parents as did her brother, Steve. Linda is teaching at East High School, Denver, Colorado, and Steve is a freshman at Texas Tech.

Visitors in the George Barker home during the Christmas holidays were their daughter and family of La Junta, Colorado, Mr. and Mrs. Jo Carrol Dutton, Mike, Jo Lynn and Beth.

Cowboys, Girls Lose In Tourney

Happy basketball teams travelled to Hale Center for a tournament during the Christmas holidays.

Both the girls and boys teams lost in the first rounds, but the boys downed Cotton Center in the first bout of the consolation try.

Olton finally doused the Cowboys hopes of the consolation prize.

Cowgirls met Silverton in the early game Thursday afternoon, but the Silverton girls proved too much for the Cowgirls. Happy fell 43-20 as Tena Williams of Silverton bagged 23 points. Carol Hardaway of Happy scored 8 points for high scorer.

Girls then battled Kress, who had been stomped by Cotton Center girls.

Happy was again on the short end, 40-31. Alice Womack netted 14 points for Happy. Linda Laurie of Kress had 22 for her average.

Cowboys found the going rough as they tackled the Silverton Owls in the first round Thursday. The Cowboys fell 59-51 with David Penn netting 14 and Larry Payne scoring 13 points.

Fred Stafford of Silverton bagged 28 points.

Happy boys beat Cotton Center Friday afternoon 52-40.

Bill Vernon proved valuable to the Cowboys with 13 points. Pat Williams of Cotton Center made 10 points.

Happy then took on Olton in the consolation finals. But the Mustangs couldn't be held and finally romped past 45-39.

Hobie McManigal and David Penn made 13 points each for high man. Joe Priest of Olton made 12 points.

Hale Center Blistered By Happy Boys

Happy basketball teams hosted Hale Center in three ball games Tuesday night of last week.

Cowboys roared past the A boys from Hale Center, 51-44, as David Penn stung the nets for 22 points. Larry Payne jumped for 14 points.

Cowgirls were dropped 49-38 against the Hale Center girls. Alice Womack led the scoring for Happy with 17 points. Carol Hardaway made 14 points.

In the B teams boys game, Hale Center edged past 40-34.

equipment such as slide rules were dumped on the floor but otherwise ignored.

Office area on the building's west side held no interest for the vandals. Records, windows and furniture in the superintendant's office, the principal's office and the teachers lounge were left alone.

"I worry about the student's morale when something like this happens," said superintendent Huelyn Laycock.

This is the third such vandalism case at the high school in three years. Last year vandals entered the high school and dumped books from students' lockers throughout the halls. Damage was estimated around $500. A similar vandalism stunt was pulled off in the spring of 1962.

The perpetrators of both incidents were caught by officers within several days.

Cleaning operations began early Wednesday morning. Laycock said books and papers would be stacked along the hall until Monday. Students will help Monday in the clean-up of the halls.

Students are out of school for Christmas holidays. Classes resume Monday morning, Jan. 4.

Plans were underway Wednesday morning to replace windows and doors damaged in the stunt.

Canyon High School Eagles played a basketball game Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock in the high school gymnasium.

Hugh Kelso, school custodian, said he left the building around 8 p.m. Tuesday.

"I worry about the students. Most of them will be upset about this, in fact 99.9 per cent of the student body is sound and will react to something like this," Laycock noted.

"I don't understand why we have this every year. The student body has worked so well together this year. I can't imagine it being someone in high school now," said high school principal Hobart McDonald.

Visiting in the home of Bonnie Jo Whittington recently was Emmy Sampson of Boulder, Colorado. Miss Sampson and Miss Whittington have been counselors at Trailblazer Camps, Port Jervis, N.Y. for several summers.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Leake have gone to Seymour for the Christmas holidays to visit her brother, who will be leaving soon to go overseas with the armed forces.

Buffs Fall In Final Doubleheader Battle

Despite having a pair of winning streaks broken Tuesday night, West Texas State coach Jimmy Viramontes did not consider the day a total loss.

Marvin Mitchell, junior forward who was the team's second leading scorer and rebounder prior to being injured three games ago, underwent successful surgery for a fractured cheekbone Tuesday morning and is expected to return to action in two or three weeks.

Viramontes would like to have Mitchell ready for a ten-day period commencing January 15, when the Buffs meet four NCAA playoff teams in a row.

The 75-70 loss to North Texas State snapped the eight-game string the Buffaloes had going in games at Canyon and also ended their five-game winning skein which started a fortnight ago in Abilene against McMurry.

Texas Western was the last college team to defeat the Buffs in Canyon, winning 61-53 last January.

The loss of Mitchell has been a costly one for the Buffaloes. In the doubleheaders, Viramontes used a lineup containing only two players over six feet tall. Three of the midgets, 6-0 Gail Simpson, 5-9 Jim Strahan and 5-9 Joe McWilliams, responded with 70 points between them in the 99-88 win over Idaho State. Their combined field goal percentage was .571. Simpson's 27 points and McWilliams' 21 represented personal collegiate highs.

In both games, the Buffaloes were unable to handle the opposing big man. Idaho State's DeWayne Cruse and North Texas State's Willie Davis, both 6-8, each scored 25 points against the Buffs.

Davis picked 17 rebounds despite playing the last 11 minutes of the game with four fouls. The Eagles had built a 60-45 margin with 14 minutes to play, but WTSU got only as close as 71-70 with one minute remaining as the Eagles' size took its toll.

Idaho State led the Buffs a good part of the way only to fall to 65.5 per cent field goal shooting in the last half by WTSU.

Cruse's scoring and overall play were outstanding, but he had little support from his teammates.

Next Monday, West Texas State hosts Panhandle A&M of Goodwell, Oklahoma, in an 8 p.m. contest at Buffalo Fieldhouse. The Aggies have dropped six in a row after winning their opener. Aggie coach Jerry Anderson says his ball club is also hurting because of a lack of size. Lenny Lee, a 5-8 guard, leads their scoring with a 20-point average followed by Vern Welch, a 6-0 transfer from WTSU. Welch, a Borger High grad, is hitting at a 15-points-per-game clip.

Despite recent coolness from the field, the Buffs are still shooting 50.6 per cent from the floor and their free throw percentage has risen to .684. Kirby Pugh continues to lead in field goal percentage with .574, rebounds with 76 and scoring with an 18.3 average. Marvin Mitchell's 81.1 mark at the foul line is the best with Pugh a close second at 79.2.

In statistics through games of December 19, the Buffaloes were second nationally in field goal percentage with 53.6 per cent and Kirby Pugh held number two position in individual field goal shooting with a 66.2 record.

Armed Robbery Charge Filed

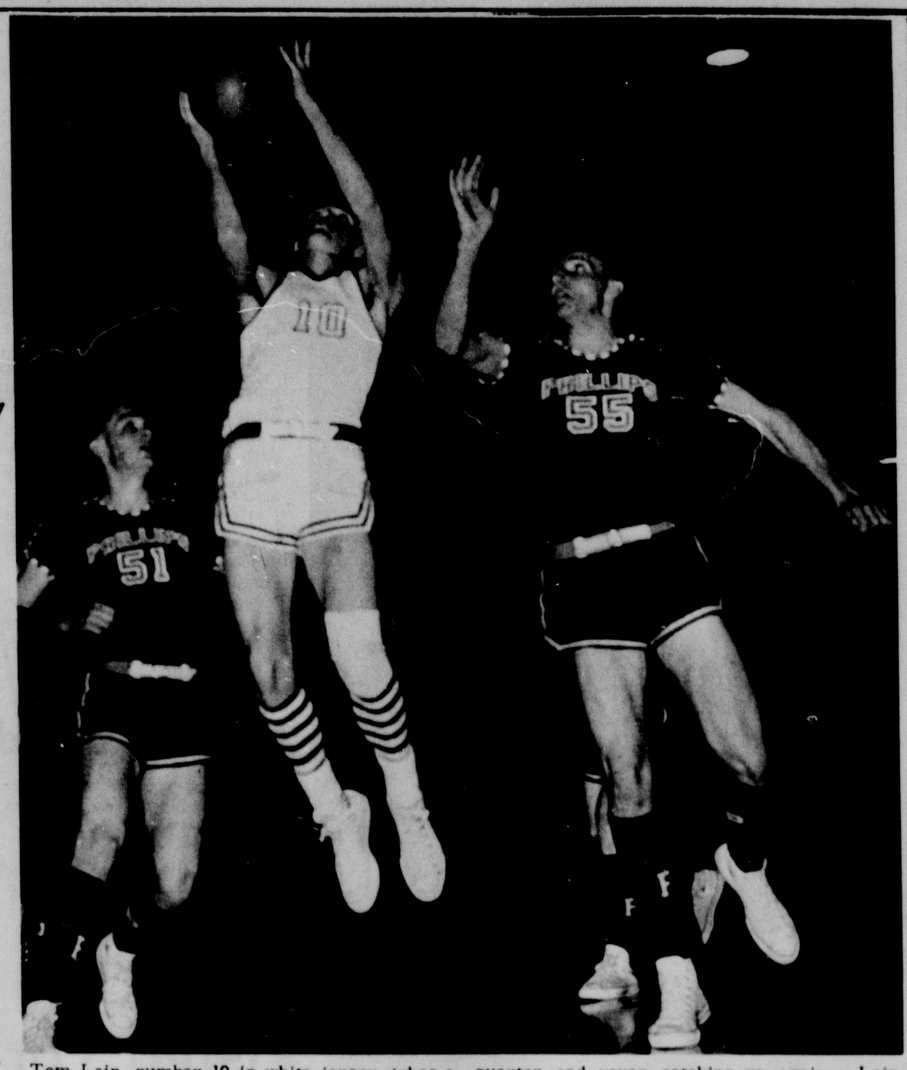
Robert Wayne Johnson, 28 years old, Amarillo, was arraigned here Tuesday on armed robbery charges.

Justice of the Peace W. A. "Bill" Wilson set bond at $5,000.

Amarillo Detective Jim Davis, investigating officer, said Johnson is charged in connection with the Dec. 1 robbery of Toot'n Totum Grocery at 4109 Western.

He said about $100 to $150 was taken in that holdup.

Detective Davis said Johnson was being held in Potter County jail in Amarillo as of Wednesday.



Tom Lair, number 10 in white jersey, takes a leap for the basket during Tuesday night's ball game against Phillips. The Canyon Eagles were defeated 49-63 falling behind in the third quarter and never catching up again. Lair netted 14 points for Canyon. He was second high man in the game.

Eagles Fall To Phillips

Canyon's Eagle cagers led the Phillips Blackhawks eight points at half time Tuesday night but fell behind in a scorching third quarter and were never able to recover.

Final score was 63 for Phillips and 49 for the Eagles.

The game was played in Canyon High School gymnasium.

The Eagle defenders held Hawk sharpshooter Lewis to a bare two field goals in the first half but the Blackhawk marksman went wild for 24 more points in the final two periods to lead game scoring with 28 points.

Canyon led 11 to 10 at the end of the first quarter; 27 to 19 at half time; and then trailed 45 to 37 by the end of the third period.

Tommy Higgins scored 17 points to lead Eagle scoring. Tom Lair scored 14 points.

Coach Roy Kieval said lack of experience was a telling factor in the Tuesday night game.

The Eagles gave way before a press applied by the Hawks in the third quarter. Kieval said his charges made 29 mistakes including violations, fumbles and bad passes.

The Eagles were far ahead in the rebound department with 43 rebounds as compared to 27 picked off by the Blackhawks.

The Eagles sank 17 field goals out of 43 tries for 39 percent while the Blackhawks hit with 25 out of 63 for 40 percent.

From the free throw line the Eagles hit with 15 of 28 for 53 percent. The Blackhawks hit 13 of 20 for 65 percent.

In the opener Tuesday night, the Canyon B team lost to the Phillips fledglings 54 to 47.

Next Eagle encounter is Saturday night at Happy. Canyon girls and Happy girls tangle in the opener at 6:30 and the boys game will be at 8 o'clock.

out overnight. I think we should leave them in the office at all time," Bryant said.

Rhodes had handled the city audit for the past two years.

Commissioners also voted to drill two water wells in the present well field west of the city. The wells will be on the northern section owned by the city and will be located near the western most line of the section.

Bryant was authorized to buy a billing machine for use in the City Hall. Bryant told commissioners with trade-in of the old machine, cost would be $4519.40.

"The new machine would make our work about 40-50 per cent faster," Bryant said.

Commissioners authorized the purchase on the rental-purchase agreement, with the choice coming after the budget has been made out and approved.

Leroy Miller was denied a permit to keep three horses in the city limits.

Zoning Discussed By Commissioners

County commissioners Monday agreed that county zoning would be good but were of the opinion that it would require enabling action from the legislature.

County Judge Lloyd King brought up the subject as a result of an editorial which appeared recently in The Canyon News.

The News editorial strongly advocated such zoning to assure orderly development of the area between Canyon and Amarillo.

Commissioners authorized meeting of the board Monday night in commissioners court room of the county courthouse.

New officers of the board will be elected at the Monday night meeting.

H. R. Fulton presently is serving as president.

The board also will finalize plans for the annual chamber of commerce banquet which will be held the night of Feb. 28. Banquet tickets are on sale at the chamber office.

Members of the board and members of the Red Carpet Committee are in charge of ticket sales.

Principal speaker is to be Jeff Williams, a Chickasha, Okla., lawyer, humorist and after dinner speaker.

the county judge to sign a statement saying the court has no objection to the closing of McBeath Avenue in the Santa Fe addition due south of Panhandle Associated Grocers warehouse.

Randall County Criminal District Attorney George Dowlen rewrote the statement inserting a phrase to the effect that members of the court has no objection in so far as they are legally able to express themselves.

Commissioners B. R. Jones and Bill Butler voted for authorizing the judge to sign the statement. Commissioner Clarence Beckman abstained. Commissioner Glenn Dowlen was not present.

The statement had been presented by C. W. Guthridge, a representative of Santa Fe Railway. Guthridge said a bakery building to be constructed by PAG is to be built across the avenue involved.

County Clerk Tommy Lair said county records show the avenue was dedicated to public use several years ago.

The court approved a plat for Coulter Acres, which is located south of Amarillo just off Bell Avenue.

Commissioners deferred payment on 197 hours of overtime turned in by the office of the tax assessor collector. Action on new voting machines also was deferred.

Guilty Plea Results In Fine, Jail Term

A jail sentence and a fine were meted out in county court to a 20-year-old Canyon man Monday after he entered a plea of guilty to charges of contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Fined $100 and court cost and sentenced to 15 days in county jail was Galen Andrew Hester, whose address was given as 2523 Ninth, Apartment 21.

Investigating officers said two teenage girls, one 14 and the other 16, ran away from their homes in Amarillo and spent some time here at the home of Hester and his teenage wife.

In open court Monday, Hester told County Judge Lloyd King that the two girls spent about a week at the Hester apartment.

"I had no knowledge that they had run away from home," Hester declared.

Officers said three girls, one of them Hester's 16-year-old wife, and three juvenile boys were taken into custody Sunday.

Two of the girls taken into custody are the girls alleged to have spent some time at the Hester apartment after having run away from home in Amarillo.

Hester told the county judge that the boys did some drinking but said the girls did no drinking "or anything else that was wrong."

A juvenile hearing for the teenagers involved will be held in Judge King's court at a later date, according to authorities.

Investigating officers were Deputy Sheriff Calvin Costley and Chief of Police L. D. Caldwell.

Costley said the juvenile boys have made a statement in which they admitted several recent petty thefts.

City Revenue Above Budget Says Manager

Canyon's revenues may top the budget some $50,000, according to city manager Dewey Bryant.

Bryant said figures for the first eight months of 1964 show revenues will be above the budgeted amount.

"Of course we knew we would be over, but it is a good feeling to see that it will actually be there," Bryant said.

The city has collected some $308,529 through August of 1964. The budget stands at $384,698.

"This is lacking $76,169, but we have $73,948 outstanding in taxes. So this will take care of most of it," Bryant continued.

Revenue from water sales is above the budget through the first eight months. Bryant noted that $131,520 was collected through August. The budget showed only $129,000 in water collections.

"So we have collected over our budgeted amount in the water department," Bryant explained.

Local Schools Accredited

Canyon Junior High School and the Canyon Rex Reeves Elementary School have been approved for accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

Canyon superintendent Huelyn Laycock made the announcement this week after receiving notification of the accreditations.

Rex Reeves Elementary School was approved by the Committee on Elementary Education at the 69th annual meeting of the association held early in December.

A letter from the association noted that, "The Rex Reeves Elementary School has demonstrated its high quality by meeting the regional requirements for initial accreditation. The task ahead is to maintain that quality and to make the continuing improvement necessary for continuing accreditation."

The letter continued by saying, "The Association's Committee on Elementary Education is confident that the Rex Reeves Elementary School possesses the qualities necessary for growth. It stands ready to assist its accredited member schools in any professional way possible."

Laycock said requirements for accreditation included a self-study and hosting a visiting team of committeemen.

Canyon schools conducted a self-study, and a team visited the school system in the Spring.

Canyon High School has had accreditation for several years, according to Laycock.

Mrs. Genelle Bourland, secretary to County Judge Lloyd King, is on vacation this week. Substituting for Mrs. Bourland is Mrs. Sherry McDowell.

CANYON BUSINESS REVIEW

BUYER'S GUIDE

Complete motor service, individual attention, guarenteed work. All this and more is available at Denny's Electric Motor Service.

K. L. Denny, owner and operator, guarentees satisfaction with his work on all types and sizes of motors.

"We try to take care of everything. We are getting our equipment and material stocks in order, so we can service any motor brought in," Denny explained.

Located at 1617 Fourth Avenue, Denny mentions that the back service entrance is the best way to enter his shop.

"The back entrance opens into the alley between Fourth and Third Avenues, and is more accessible for service," the owner said.

Denny and his wife, Marylou, and their three children moved to Canyon in September of this year.

The native Oklahoman bought the electric motor business from Lorenzo Wirt Sept. 14.

"We really like Canyon, and the kids think Canyon schools are wonderful," he notes.

Children, Lyle, 10, Linda, 8, and Brian, 6, and their parents live at 523 West Twelfth Avenue.

Denny has been in the electrical business for about 25 years.

He graduated from high school in Perkins, Oklahoma then attended Oklahoma State University in Stillwater.

In 1943 he received a degree in electrical engineering, and since then his work has been in the electrical field.

He began as an electrical projectionist for a theater chain in Oklahoma. In 1953 he settled in Oklahoma City and began working for Tinker Air Force Base as an electrical motor maintenance man.

In November, 1957, he joined with the Federal Aviation Agency in Oklahoma City as a motor repairman.

Then Denny found Canyon, and the family decided to begin the new business.

"We want to expand our equipment stock to the point that we will be able to give better and faster service to our customer," he said.

Denny thinks the customer is the most important thing in his business.

"I want the customer to feel that he is a special individual. We will give special attention to the individual.

"We will do his work in the least amount of time possible and still do a good job.

"We will give the finest in workmanship and materials available, at the most reasonable prices we can work out.

"We are trying to maintain the price range that is established in Amarillo and the surrounding areas.

And Denny offers his customers three-day service.

"We will try to work everything in three days. If we can we will offer shorter time on special jobs, giving it our immediate attention and working extra hours. We will not charge extra for it," Denny commented.

On minor repair work, of replacement of parts, Denny's Electric Motor Service offers a 90 day guarentee.

On rewind work a one year guarentee will be given.

With 25 years experience backing his work, K. L. Denny is the man to trust with any and all motor repairs.

Drop by and see Denny, talk with him, then let him do your work for you. You'll be glad you did.

Mrs. George Blackwell "Airborne" In Leisure

BY PHYLLIS BONNIE

Although the holiday season is nearly past Canyon cooks can still try out their abilities on three recipes given by Mrs. George Blackwell this week.

Included in the recipes are Hot Pineapple Salad, Strawberry Divinity and Sugar Jumbles.

Mrs. Blackwell, known to most folks as Georgia, is a native of Canyon.

The daughter of A. B. Holt, she has two sisters, Virginia and Ann. Virginia is now Mrs. Don Cotton of El Paso, and has two daughters, Vanessa Lee and Celia Beth.

Ann, now married to Dick Dawdy of Canyon, also has two children, Stephanie and Tom.

George and Georgia met and married in 1947, when she was teaching Bible School in his home church at Moriarty, New Mexico.

Grant, George's twin brother, lives in Lubbock, now, as does his mother. However, says Georgia, "Grant and George are just about opposites in everything."

"We lived in New Mexico for a while after we first married," Georgia says. "But we got tired of sweeping the beans out of the house, so returned to Canyon. George decided to raise pinto beans, and that being a very dry year in New Mexico, the wind blew, and of course the beans wound up in the house instead of on the plants where they belonged.

"When we returned to Canyon, we lived in a four-room home on Second Avenue, and have lived in several other places since then. When George began building National Homes, we built this one and moved in.

"National Homes are prefab, and ours arrived on a truck. Then, from the time we poured the foundation, until we moved in was six weeks to the day.

The Blackwells have lived in their home for a little over four years.

Georgia attended Canyon grade schools and High School and is a graduate of West Texas State, where she majored in English.

"I worked at West Texas State in the business office for six years, from 1947-53, while George was completing his degree", she says with a smile.

"Then, I began working for an oil well drilling company in Amarillo, as a secretary for five years, and after that, I retired."

"Ever since then, I've been working my head off.

"But I practically had to quit my job with the oil company, because I was working 12 and 13 hours a day. It was fascinating work, but each time I got a raise, I felt like I ought to work that much harder," she laughingly relates.

George now owns his own general insurance agency here in Canyon, and Georgia is enjoying doing nothing.

"I never have gotten organized enough to be very active in community affairs, but I am superintendent of Intermediate I, 13-14 year-old boys and girls, at First Baptist Church, and serve as president of American Association of University Women. Also, George and I play bridge and belong to a bridge club, and I like to drink coffee and go visiting.

The Blackwell's dog, Henry, is a one-and-a-half-year-old Dachshund.

"Henry loves to fly", says Georgia. "George is a member of a flying club in Amarillo which has 20 members. The club owns two Mooneys, each four-seat, and is trying to find ten more members so they can purchase a Twin Comanche, two engine, four seat, and a Cessna, two seat. The Cessna will then be available for private instruction, freeing the larger planes for longer flights.

"Sometimes when we go up, Henry will sit in the back seat and look as if he is surveying the situation, including our course and how the weather is."

"We have lived with planes for ten years", says Georgia. "George received his license in 1954, and usually uses the plane for short trips around the area.

"Planes belonging to the club are scheduled for the use of members, and we have flown to Las Cruces, N.M., Colorado Springs, Austin, Dallas, El Paso, Oklahoma City, Kentucky, and Kansas, on both business and pleasure trips.

Also, George has flown to Arizona with several of the other men for Buff football games.

Whether she is in the air, or in the middle of a meeting in Canyon, we'll have to agree that Georgia is a fascinating person to know, and one of whom people who know her can say, "She's fun to be around."

HOT PINEAPPLE SALAD

1 can (#2 1/2) pineapple chunks and juice
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 lb. grated cheese (Kraft mild)
1/2 to 1/4 cup flour
Pecans and cherries may be added (Maraschino cherries)
Bake 45 minutes at 300 degrees.
Serve hot.

STRAWBERRY DIVINITY

3 c. sugar
3/4 c. light corn syrup
3/4 c. water
2 egg whites (unbeaten)
1 3 oz. package strawberry gelatin
1/2 c. flaked or shredded coconut
1 cup chopped pecans

Combine sugar and water and corn syrup in heavy saucepan. Bring to a boil, stirring constantly. Reduce heat and cook to hard ball stage (252 degrees). Beat egg whites until fluffy, then add gelatin and beat until mixture forms peaks. Pour hot syrup in thin stream into egg whites, beating constantly, until candy loses gloss and holds shape. Fold in coconut and nuts. Drop by tsp. on waxed paper.

SUGAR JUMBLES

1/2 c. soft shortening (part butter)
1/2 c. sugar
1 egg
1 tsp. vanilla
mix together thoroughly.
Sift together and stir in, 1 1/2 cups sifted flour, 1/4 tsp soda, 1/2 tsp salt.
Drop rounded teaspoonfuls 2" apart on lightly greased baking sheet. Bake at 375 degrees, 8-10 minutes or until delicately brown. Cookies should still be soft. Cool slightly, then remove from baking sheet.

Dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gidden last Sunday included Mr. and Mrs. Perry Walters of Tonganoxie, Kansas, Miss Mackie Allgood, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, Mrs. Loucille Roberts, Tulia, Miss Olla Etta Gillham, Jefferson, Texas, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Adams, Loyse Gillham, Rolland Adams, all of Wayside, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Francies, Donna Ruth, Faye, and Christie Jo of Kress, Texas.

"Now, look at the camera, Henry.", admonishes Mrs. George Blackwell, as she seats the family's pet dachshund in his best "pose". One of the hobbies of the Blackwells, George and Georgia, is flying, and naturally, Henry goes along, since, as Georgia says, "he doesn't know he's a dog."

Company Sees More In 1965

Southwestern Public Service Company's 1965 construction and improvement program calls for an investment of $24,607,000 in new facilities, it has been announced by A. R. Watson, president and general manager of the electric company.

The company's construction plans for 1965 anticipate the second largest annual improvement program in the company's history, topped only by 1964's record investment of more than $30,000,000. At the conclusion of the 1965 program, the electric company will have invested nearly $120,000,000 in new equipment in the 1961-65 period.

"One year ago, when we announced a record single year construction budget, our forecast was for continued growth throughout our 45,000 square mile service area," Watson said.

1965 will see a continuation of a program started last year to convert the main arteries of the company's transmission network to 230,000 volt lines. The major voltage was 115,000 volts until this year.

Burglars Hit Home

Burglars took several items from the Bob Lindsey home west of Canyon during the holidays.

Deputy Sheriff Calvin Costley, investigating officer, said the burglary was pulled off some time between Thursday and 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Taken were a portable television set, a typewriter and a coin collection belonging to the Lindsey children.

Costley said burglars attempted to gain entry through a bathroom window but apparently went to a rear door after finding the window stuck.

Randall County sheriff's department is investigating.

Son Born To H.Ray McCowns

Mr. and Mrs. H. Ray McCown had a baby son Dec.21 in Neblett Hospital.

Donald Ray was born at 7 p.m., and weighed 7 pounds, 3 ounces at birth.

Maternal grandparents of the child are Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Hurst of Slaton. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Harlan McCown of Wichita Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Brantley Laycock of Laurel, Maryland are visiting through Saturday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Huelyn Laycock.

Woman Falls, Breaks Hip Christmas Day

Mrs. A. B. Martin, of Amarillo, mother of Terry Martin of Canyon, fell Christmas Day while visiting in the home of her son and broke her right hip.

Mrs. Martin, a Panhandle pioneer, is in Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo.

She had planned to visit in Canyon several days before the accident.

Mrs. Martin is the wife of the late Judge A. B. Martin, early day judge in the Panhandle area.

Mr. and Mrs. Huelyn Laycock hosted a gathering of the Laycock family Wednesday of this week. Present for the gathering were Mrs. Lillie Laycock, Huelyn's mother, of Shamrock, brothers and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Laycock of Shamrock, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Laycock of Levelland, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Laycock and Mr. and Mrs. Royce Laycock, all of Pampa, and Mrs. Laycock's mother, Mrs. Clara Harrill of Abilene.
